MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER
DENYING PLAINTIFFS' EMERGENCY
MOTION FOR LIMITED, EXPEDITED
DISCOVERY WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Case No. 1:13-cv-126 TS

District Judge Ted Stewart

Magistrate Judge Brooke Wells

Before the Court is Plaintiffs' Emergency Motion for Limited, Expedited Discovery and to Preserve Evidence.¹ Plaintiffs filed their motion on September 12, 2013 and on the same day filed a Request to Submit representing that the motion was "ripe for decision."² The Court finds Plaintiffs' motion is premature and therefore DENIES it WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

As noted by Judge Stewart in his Memorandum Decision denying Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, "Plaintiffs appear to state a strong case for injunctive relief."³ Defendants, however, have yet to make an appearance in this case and a summons was issued electronically to Defendants on September 12, 2013. As such, the deadline for Defendants to Answer the Complaint has yet to expire. Further, Defendants response to the instant motion would be due at best by September 30, 2013, presuming they had already entered an appearance in this case and had been served with a copy of the motion. While the Court is sympathetic to Plaintiffs situation, and is willing to grant expedited discovery pursuant to Rule 26(d) when necessary,⁴ Plaintiffs have failed to show good cause that discovery must immediately commence without Defendants being given at least an opportunity to answer the Complaint.⁵ Finally, this is not a situation where all the Defendants are unknown or their identities are difficult to find which sometimes necessitates expedited discovery.⁶

ORDER

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth above the Court DENIES WITHOUT PREJUDICE Plaintiffs' Emergency Motion for Limited, Expedited Discovery and to Preserve Evidence. Plaintiffs may renew the motion after the Defendants have been served and entered an appearance on the record.
